

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
List of Illustrations	ix
GILLIAN PYE
Introduction: Trash as Cultural Category	i
KEVIN HETHERINGTON
The Ruin Revisited	15
SONJA WINDMÜLLER
‘Trash Museums’: Exhibiting in Between	39
LEE STICKELLS AND NICOLE SULLY
Haunting the Boneyard	59
KATHLEEN JAMES-CHAKRABORTY
Recycling Landscape: Wasteland into Culture	77
TAHL KAMINER
The Triumph of the Insignificant	95
DOUGLAS SMITH
Scrapbooks: Recycling the Lumpen in Benjamin and Bataille	113

UWE C. STEINER

The Problem of Garbage and the Insurrection of Things 129

WIM PEETERS

Deconstructing 'Wasted Identities' in Contemporary German Literature 147

CATHERINE BATES AND NASSER HUSSAIN

Talking Trash/ Trashing Talk: Cliché in the Poetry of bpNichol and Christopher Dewdney 165

RANDALL K. VAN SCHEPEN

The Heroic 'Garbage Man': Trash in Ilya Kabakov's
The Man Who Never Threw Anything Away 183

JOEL BURGESS

The Television and the Teapot: Obsolescence,
All that Heaven Allows, and a Sense of Historical Time in Contemporary Life 201

HARVEY O'BRIEN

'Really? Worst film you ever saw. Well, my next one will be better':
Edward D. Wood Jr, Tim Burton and the Apotheosis of the Foresaken 221

Notes on Contributors 239

Index 243